

24 Hour Hotline: 1-800-421- TEEN (8336)

PROGRAM

Project Hope & Drop-In Center Services -McLennan & Bell County

PROGRAM GOAL

Project Hope strives to increase the identification of sex trafficking survivors ages 13-25 served through CTYS programs within Bell, McLennan, and Coryell counties. The program provides specialized groups, case management, support and referral services to assist sex trafficking survivors in recovery and restoration. This program is run by the Youth Advocate Coordinator and is the main point of contact for youth participating in this program.

QUALIFYING CRITERIA

- Seeking survivor services
- Homeless seeking services, age meet program requirements

SERVICES PROVIDED

- Mental and physical health care referral
- Transportation assistance (case by case)
- Emergency meal assistance
- Assistance in completing education enrollment
- Assistance in obtaining employment
- Referrals to housing programs
- Hygiene assistance /Basic Needs
- State I.D. assistance for those seeking employment assistance.
- Referrals to qualified agency programs, and assistance with other external agency services

PROGRAM LIMITATIONS

- Program participants must remain active in the program to receive adequate services.

RESOURCE CENTER LOCATIONS

Harker Heights (Drop Ctr.)

100 S Ann Blvd (Street Front Location)
Harker Heights, Texas 76548

Contact:

Bari Gamble – YA Coordinator
254-768-2863(office)

Contact:

Kameika Bagio-Youth Advocate
254-768-2863(office)

Contact: Waco Area

Jackson Madsen- Youth Advocate
254-493-2920(cell)

*All correspondence will be made within 24 business hours of initial contact to schedule an intake appointment for referrals or answer questions.